

Recommendations for authors

Scientific works presented for publication must be written in format A4, Times New Roman, 14, in Word 1997 or Word 2000, 1,5 interval, fields – 2,5 according all sides, using only one side of paper.

Title list: here must be pointed the title of work, name and surname of the author (authors), scientific grade, organization or institution, where the work was elaborated.

The works must have summary in English and Roman languages (for articles written in foreign language), volum 150-200 words (for each summary), in separate sheets of paper.

The text of experimental or clinical articles with the volume less than 10 pages and brief publications includes: introduction, methods and materials, results, discussions, conclusions and bibliographical references. Medico-social publications, referates and pharmaceutical materials must not be more that 15 pages and they include not more than 30 references. Informational materials, decisions of the Public Health Ministry Supreme Soviet, national programs, decisions of the Government and different laws in the field of Public Health – all these will be published integral.

Illustrative materials (photos, pictures, figures, schemes, diagrams), in minimal number, must include number according to the text, numeration of tables must be done in the right corner of the page, above the table and figures and pictures must have their number at the left under the picture. We accept only pictures done in black tush or in black-white electronic variant, photos must be done at the special photo-paper.

Description of figures and tables must be in accordance with them.

Mathematical and chemical formulas must be printed correctly (level of dash, capital and small letters, symbols).

Bibliographical references must be presented in the end of the work in accordance to alphabetic order of authors' names and they must be numbered. The titles of books without author must be written according to the order of the year of appearance. Bibliography meets the requirements of the National Commission for Accreditation and Certification of scientific publications. References in the text are made in the square brackets ([]) in accordance with bibliography.

Works must be presented in two copies with all elements including disc with the name of author and article title, file and version.

The letter of accompaniment. The all works must have the letter of accompaniment from the face of chief manager of organization or the author, who is responsible for correspondence. This letter confirms the fact, that all authors are agree to the content of the text and all materials and data were not published in other editions.

Attention to the authors:

- The articles are reviewed by specialists in the field of science;
- In the case, when publication is returned to the author for revision, modification or shortening, it must be presented new variant and initial variant of the publication.
- The corrected works are not returned to the author;
- The redaction is not responsible for the reliability of data;
- The articles which do not meet the requirements, pointed above, may be not registered and examined.

Presentation. Publications must be presented to the name of editor-in-chief Constantin Yetsko, dr. habilitat, professor universitar, Economie, Management and psychopedagogies department of the State University of Medicine and Pharmacy “Nicolae Testemitanu” at the address.

Bd. Ștefan cel Mare, 194^a (blocul 4, et.4)

MD – 2004, Chișinău, Republica Moldova

Telefon: (3732) 22-63-56, 20-52-15 Fax: 24-23-44